ST. JOSEPH 39, PURDUE FRESHMEN 14.

St. Joseph's evening session with the Purdue Reserve quintet on Feb. 10, proved the first really exciting and hair raising encounter of the season. The score does not at all indicate how Capt. Skamp and his troupe toiled to hold back the varsity's attack. At the end of the first half the count stood 16 to 9 with St. Joseph's rooters cheering. It had been a round of fast basketball. St. Joe drew away in the second half. The Purple and Gold boys lacked endurance while Monahan and Deery improved in finding the rings as the game progressed. Schellinger kept up his great floor work besides counting five times. Rich Murphy played guard in the absence of Schall and made an impression. Beckman gave a characteristic exhibition of his center rush style of play and proved a worthy match for Skamp who should be something of a mat artist.

Summary: Field goals, Schellinger 5, Monahan 4, Deery 8, Myers 1, Skamp 2, Lowman 1. Smith 1. Free throws, Schellinger 5, Skamp 4. Referee, Fitzgerald. Umpire, Beaucon.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY 38 ST. JOSEPH 24

Loyola's triumph over the Varsity on Saturday, Feb. 14, was the most decisive defeat that the Varsity has suffered on the home floor in many years. It was simply a matter of bowing to a superior team and there are no excuses for the defeat. Lined up against a thoroughly coached team which boasts a season's record of sixteen consecutive victories, St. Joe was completely baffled by the team-work of the visitors. Schall's absence from the game accounts in some measure for the poor floor work of the locals, but it is doubtful whether he could have acquitted himself better than did Maloney, who was used in the emergency. The size of the Chicago boys proved a great handicap to the locals. Beckman especially was unable to cope with the overhead pass. Capt. Deery spent himself in the first half, and was unable to keep up the space set by McNulty, Loyola's star center, as the game progressed.

The Loyola quintet is easily the best team seen in action at St. Joseph's for years. Barth, a St. Joe monogram man of last year, and Cavanaugh, also a former St. Joe boy, accompanied the team as subs.

Though decisively defeated, the Varsity men have no reason to be disheartened. Sickness has been haunting several of the men, while Schall's accident at St. Viateur's is still keeping him out of the game. The greatest handicap, however, is the want of an efficient coach, as was clearly evident in the Loyola game. Fr. Kramer made overtures for a coach from Purdue early in the season, but after some delay the offer was declined. It was then too late to secure the services of an efficient man. The Loyola game line-up:

St. Joseph.	Loyola.
Schellinger	F Lyman
Maloney	F Gellery
	Cavanaugh
Deery	C McNulty
Beckman,
Murphy	G Ashenden
Monahan, McGinty	G Brown, Barth.

Summary: Field goals, Lyman 4, Gellery 5, McNulty 5, Brown 2, Schellinger 2, Maloney 3, Deery 3, Monahan 1. Free throws, Schellinger 6, Ashenden 6. Referee, Fitzgerald. Umpire, Lyman.

ST. JOSEPH 36 Co. C MONTICELLO 26.

The Monticello aggregation of basket-ball artists proved to be a pretty chesty bunch of players and sprang quite a surprise on the varsity. The varsity outplayed them completely in the first half, but during the second half a streak of individual playing started through the varsity with the result that Monticello scored 17 to their 16 points. The game was fast and clean, but Monticello, working under new rules, were unable to break up the team work of the varsity. On a whole, the game proved to be a more interesting one than expected, but the varsity score could have been higher with a little more pass work. Deery, with 6 field baskets, and Schellinger's free throws, featured for St Joe, while Lods and Gustavell of Monticello starred for Co. C.

Summary: Field goals, Deery 6, Schellinger 2, Monahan 3, Murphy 2, McGinty 5, Gustavell 5, Faurer 1, Slinket 3, Lods 1. Free throws, Schellinger 8, Lods 6.

Referee, Fitzgerald. Umpire, Anheier.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

Luck had no sympathy for those slipping III Latins on Feb. 11, and Dowling's clan advanced a notch in the race. Lause led in the scoring with 5 baskets. The score was 20 to 14.

The Sophies had their usual "corner" on baskets on Feb. 12, and the ambitious Coms. had to content themselves with 12 points. Lynch scored 4 free throws in as many tries but this was the only redeeming feature of his team's playing. Maloney and the Murphys divided evenly the scoring honors. Score 36 to 12.

For about 25 minutes it appeared that the Commercials were blasting all the pennant hopes of the crippled Seniors, who are yet without the services of Grothjan and Burger. After falling behind at the opening of the second half, the veterans rallied and tied the count. A mistake by the scorer which gave the game to the Seniors was discovered too late and the game will have to be played over. Daniels for the Seniors, and Maher and Becker for the Coms., were the bright lights. The correct score was 21 to 21.

Junior League.

LAURELS 11—BLUE BELLS 14.

Feb. 7.—The Laurels met their Waterloo when they met their nearest competitors for the league leadership. Floating their 1000 Pct. in their rival's face they went down in defeat to the tune of 14-11. Perry was "on" making 5 ringers in the first half.

IMPERIALS 28—CARDINALS 17.

Feb. 11. The Imperials raised themselves out of the cellar and by some excellent team-work made the Cardinals taste defeat. McGahey chalked up 6 baskets for his team while Kovaschitz with 5 and Hunt with 5 run up their score.

LAURELS 22—CARDINALS 6.

Feb. 14.—The Cardinals were off color while the whole Laurel team were on their feet in this loose and poorly contested game the Laurels winning with a final count 22-6.

CARDINALS 9—BLUE BELLS 16.

Feb. 16.—Although weakened by the loss of two regulars the Cardinals gave the Blue Bells one of the greatest fights of the season. With the odds against them the Cardinals exhibited a fighting spirit that puts ginger in any game. Their close guarding kept the Blue Bells forwards under cover but their own forwards could not shake the Blue Bells backfield.

Academic League.

HARVARD 20.

YALE 6.

Feb. 11. Carlisle walked away from Yale smothering them under a pile of 8 baskets, Delor shining with 5 ringers.

ARMY 13

HARVARD 12.

CARLISLE 17

Feb. 18. After holding their 1000 pct. over half the season the Harvardites had to bow to the Indian aggregation in a tight and fast game.

Minim's League.

WRENS 9.

DOVES 24.

Feb. 11. The Doves snowed the Wrens under with a 24-9 score. Blaser was the only one of his men to connect for a point while Kane and Staton divided honors on their side.

LARKS 19.

Doves 6.

Feb. 15. The Doves were unable to break through the defense of the Larks while Collins ran up 15 points for his team. The game was rough and interesting on both sides.

WRENS 7.

LARKS 15.

Feb. 17. The Wrens gave the Larks a run for their money when they hitched up for the fourth time. The Wrens could not stand the strain of the first half, the Larks winning out by the score 15-7.

EDITORIAL.

THOUGH at the height of his glory now, King Winter has not long to stay. A glance at any sporting page these days will almost cause you to forget the chills, and give you near visions of straw hats and roses. The South is almost overrun these days with ambitious ball tossers, loosening up their joints for the 1914 grind; the spirit of the times demands that King Winter go soon. But we incline somewhat to the North and the hoary gentlemen has a longer lease on our soil than he has on the sunny South. For this reason basketball should continue to satisfy our athletic appetite for several weeks to come, although making a few plans for base ball would not be immature. The general manager of base ball who will be elected soon should be a competent all around man, and should not be elected injudiciously. Then too the leagues as well as the Varsity will be in need of good twirlers; every aspirant for the firing line should begin to loosen up his salaried arm by light pitching. It is hoped that battery practice will be started in the gym soon.

LOCALS.

Lause—Say Kuntz got a quarter?
Kuntz—What are you going to do with a quarter?
Lause— I want to start a sinking fund for the Amalgamated Beggars' Society of the Smoking Club.

Stich What are your views politically? Do you think that the Currency Bill should pass the House?
Moriarity—It would'nt pass my house if I saw it coming.

There is only one objection we can offer for Jack Annen's conduct in the refectory — he allows everything to go to waist. Speaking of Jack, he thought that the magician's name Legerdemair, as it appeared on the program, was a very funny one.

Dan's Typical Syllogism.

A beehive is a beeholder
A beeholder is a spectator
A specked tater is a bad potato
Therefore a bad potato is a beehive.

We will not criticize aspiring orators who pranks gestures during their sleep: even Demosthenes was guilty of such practices: but Teddy Fettig is out with an extra shoe for the fellow who has been making rousing speeches in his corner of the senior dorm.

Junior Wit.

Halfman—Say, Archie who cut your hair?
Cummings—You sharp looks I suppose.

Fecher—What are you limping for?
Strecker—There's a nail in my shoe.
Fecher—That's nothing there's a nail in my toe.
